Foreword

Our voyage has come to an end—now we are sailing forth into a new world, a world of which not one of us knows what is awaiting. Although we are anxious to begin our new Journey, we have no desire to forget the outstanding events that have occurred in our four years of high school life. For this reason, we, the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Forty-Five, set before you our school life, in this, our Sailors' Log.

Dedication

It is with utmost self esteem that we, the Graduating Class of '45, do hereby dedicate this, the 1945 volume of the Sailors' Log, to Miss Angeline Cacciatore, who has retained the responsibility as adviser of our Yearbook for the past two years.

She has proved to be an inspiration among the students; she has worked hard and diligently with the Yearbook Staff and has always been ready to give a helping hand to the students, regardless of what the task may have been. Ready, willing, and able are characteristics that might well be applied to Miss Cacciatore.

We feel that we cannot fully express our appreciation for all she has striven to give us, but we will say this, "Thank you, Miss Cacciatore, we have enjoyed having you as a teacher, guide and a friend."

CLASSES

Class History

The sun was shining, the birds were singing, and we were groaning as we longingly looked out of the schoolroom that was to prevent us from enjoying nature for four long years. We were Freshmen, and though we realized we were beginning our ascent of the ladder leading to our, oh, so distant goal, we set our yearnings aside and settled down.

Taking it in our stride, we decided to make high school an institution for fun and frolic intermingled with those unavoidable fundamentals.

Hardly had we accustomed ourselves to the surroundings when we realized we were about to be honored with a new title. The year had passed with such rapidity and we had so adapted ourselves that we were rather reluctant to relinquish our position as "under-dog", but with a sigh of resignation we accepted the more prominent title of "Sophomore."

This was probably the year that the class of '45 really started to take form. Our boys had thrown their hats into the ring for sports, and the girls had begun to take their place in high school society. Clubs were organized and cheer leaders representing the Sophomore class took positions on the field to spur our teams on to victory, but despite the numerous activities, we usually found time for our studies.

Another rung on the ladder to success was mounted in '44 in our Junior year. Our boys had contributed their share toward attaining the school's sports prestige. The added activities of a banquet and prom, besides providing a means of entertainment, impressed upon us the fact that we, the Junior class of '44, were about to take our position on the last rung of that ladder which had previously seemed so difficult to ascend.

Needless to say, our Senior year provided us with everything we thought we had lacked in the beginning. Our teams won top honors in all there undertakings. Sweeping away all opposition, both football and basketball teams contributed two more pennants to our ever increasing collection. The presentation of both the Minstrel and Senior play proved to be a tremendous success.

Since fate has provided that we accept the unpleasant with the pleasant, we were forced to deny ourselves the companionship of two of our fellow students, namely: George Haduch and George Spanich.

—When our classmates heeded the call to the colors we were proud of them.

Some might say the Class of '45 has had the misfortune of being a war-time graduating class, but in a stricter sense we do not consider ourselves unfortunate. Opportunities have been afforded us that would otherwise have presented themselves much later in life. We have learned the value of thrift by buying War Bonds and Stamps each week; we have learned to be charitable and have conducted scrap drives that helped the boy who sat next to us in school; we have learned, also, to regulate our lives so that we might be an asset rather than a hindrance to those whom we love and we've developed that sense of fellowship and understanding that exists among those that have a common objective in view.

Therefore, we are proud of our students who participated in the work-study plan; we honor those who have already departed seeking a greater degree of knowledge in the higher institutions of learning and, last but not least, we salute our servicemen, the pride and joy of the Class of '45.

Class Will

We, the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Forty-Five, in departing from Swoyerville High School, do hereby leave and bequeath to you, our teachers and our successors, in the hope that we will long be remembered, our most cherished and beloved possessions.

Being of sound mind and memory at the time this was written, we declare that this, our Last Will and Testament, be made known and fully carried out.

First, to you, our underclassmen, be you Freshman, Sophomore, or Junior, we leave our rights and privileges of occupying the empty rooms during classes. We also leave to you, the future Seniors of Swoyerville High School, our love for school and all that is connected with it.

And last, but not least, to you, our Teachers, we leave the possessions we believe will be most valuable to you.

We, the Senior Class, leave to:

Mr. Buda, a lie detector to question absentees.

Mr. YonKondy, a box of his world-famous "Vitees".

Mr. Chiampi, a private secretary to answer his correspondence.

Mr. Palermo, a position as football coach at Notre Dame.

Mr. Ollock, a business establishment in the heart of Swoyerville.

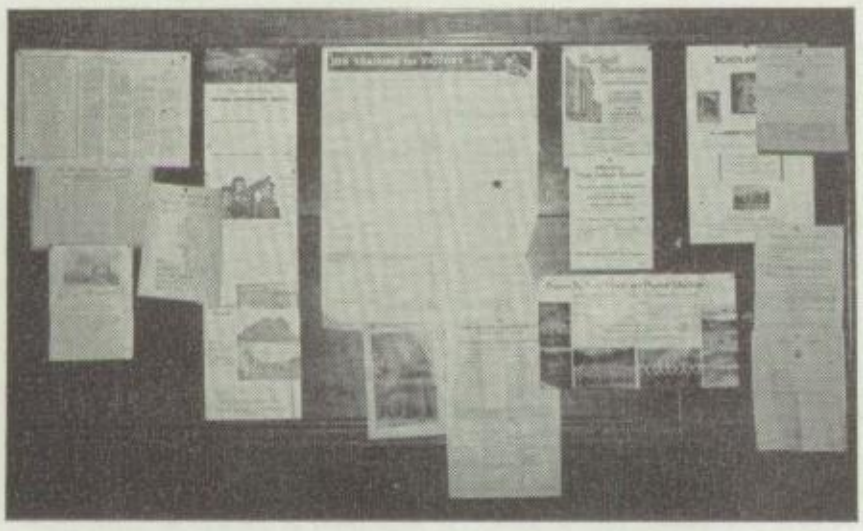
Mr. Shockloss, some current Victor records.

Miss Condon, a contract with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer to direct their latest movie production.

Miss Malone, a brief-case to carry her many test papers in.

Miss Cacciatore, a cooperative Yearbook Staff like we were.

Mrs. Puhak, a record of her famous "sh-sh-sh-sh" and



"Dear Sir".

Miss Zelnock, a time clock to be punched at 2:00 p. m.

Miss Reilly, a hickory stick to conduct her classes.

Miss Jennings, a recipe for Italian spaghetti.

Mrs. O'Boyle, our home visitor, four flat tires to prevent her social calls to our parents.

Mr. Haduch, our janitor, an electric grass cutter to make his work easier.

I, Irene Urban, leave my love for the opposite sex to Mildred Lukachko.

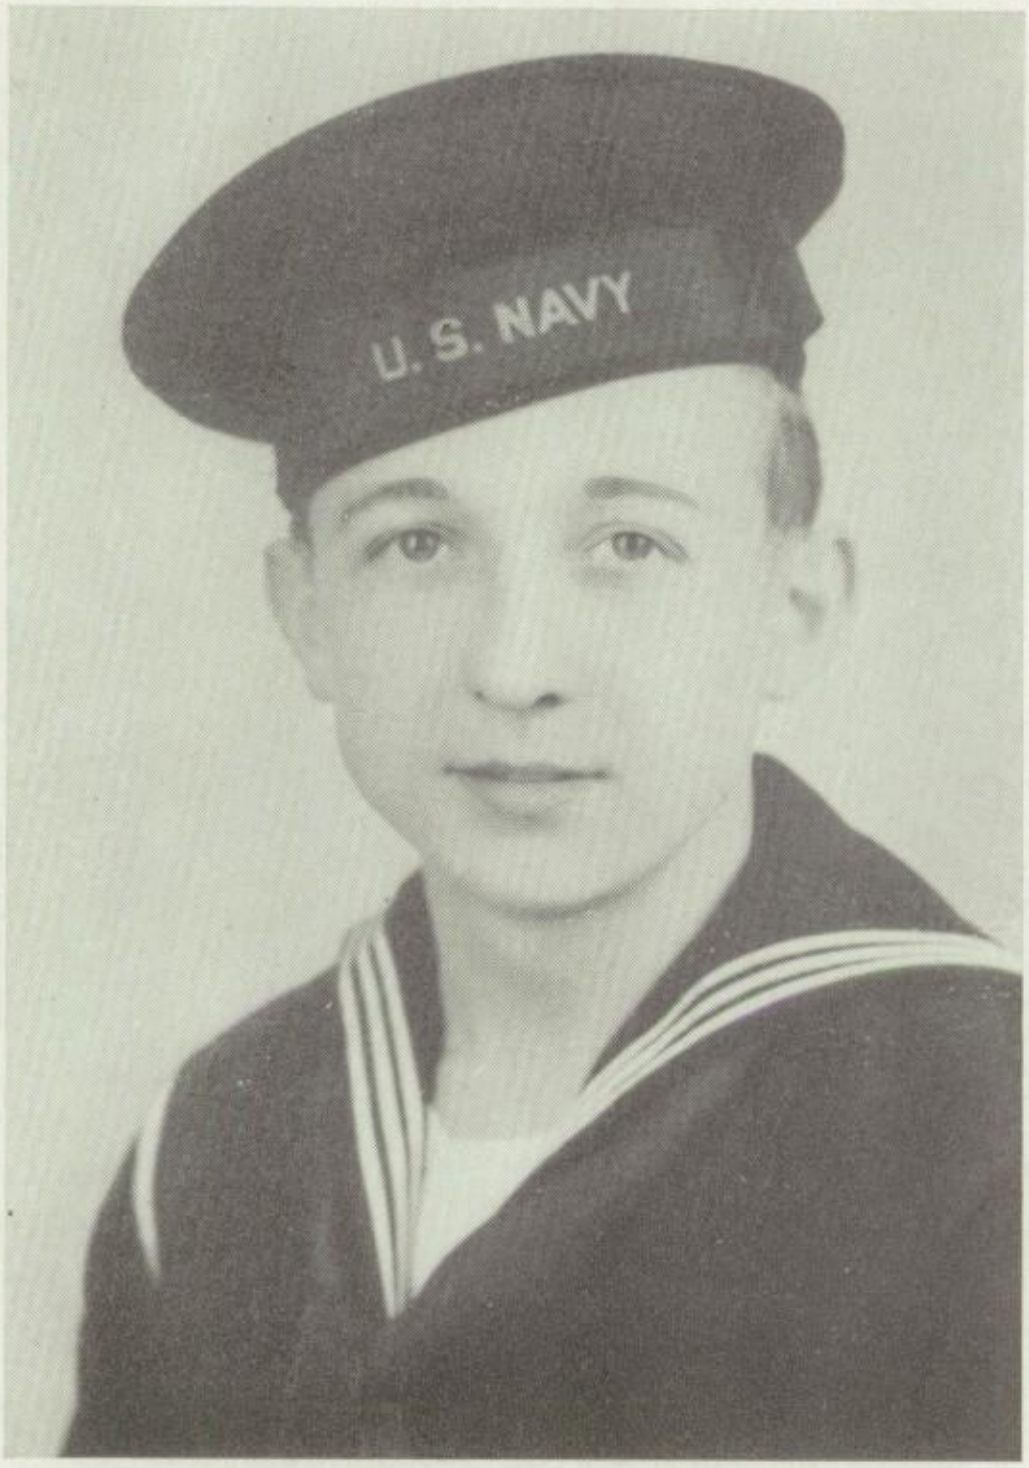
In Memoriam



It is with deep sympathy that we, the Class of 1945, dedicate this portion of "The Sailors' Log" to two of our beloved classmates, George Haduch and George Spanich.

Many cherished memories of both these boys will live eternally in our hearts. Of them, we are proud, and it is our hope that somewhere, in another world, they are once more together, and that some day we may meet again. Their deep spiritual influence will continue to inspire us and to perpetuate their names in the realm of Kindness and Goodness and enable us to keep alive a beautiful Memoriam.

Underclassmen

It is time to bid the Underclassmen good-bye. This is not an easy task. They have been classmates and friends during the past three years.

The Juniors, to whom we leave our dignified place as Seniors, have been co-operative and helpful in many ways, and we are certain that they will continue in the same spirit during the years to come. Among them are boys and girls who are good scholars and excellent athletes.

The Sophomores and Freshmen are also large and outstanding groups and we are sure will meet all the high standards set by the classes before them.

We know, these friends and classmates we leave behind will remember those who have gone before them and carry on.

ADMINISTRATION

WALTER S. BUDA

Principal's Message

Mr. Walter S. Buda who has been our Supervising Principal since we began our Sophomore year in 1942, came to us from Newport Township High School and their loss was our gain.

Mr. Buda has tried to do everything possible for the betterment of our high school and has had the cooperation of its faculty and students.

On this page, dedicated to him, we wish to thank him for all the opportunities he has made possible for us by his diligent and untiring efforts to guide us on Life's Highway.

Board Of Education

The Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Forty-Five take this privilege and honor to extend our appreciation and respect to the Board of Education.

It is their aim to give every student an opportunity to acquire knowledge that will one day be a priceless foundation for an education in more advanced fields.

The self confidence we have attained, after our four years of study, is strengthened by the perfect example of their cooperation and expert guidance in all activities, at all times.

After leaving Swoyerville High School, no matter how long or wherever we may be, we shall look upon our Board of Directors with great respect and admiration.

Seated:—J. Kazmeroski, Treasurer; G. Swetts, President; G. Volansky, Secretary.

Standing:—M. Zipay, P. Jurchak, Attorney; J. Holup, Vice-President; J. Kender, J. Zim, W. S. Buda, Supervising Principal.

ATHLETICS

SPORTS

From the introduction, to the present standing of athletics at S. H. S., the feats of our athletes shall be registered for posterity in the annals of this great but minute school, situated in this beauteous Wyoming Valley, a part of these United States of America.

Out of participation in athletics, evolves an individual capable of rising to new and greater heights because of the stalwart character, the coordination of mind and body, and the instinct and determination every athlete possesses.

Therefore, we pay homage to these athletes who by their ambitions and efforts have raised the science of athletics to such a high standard at our Alma Mater that with each passing year the white anchor silhouetted against the blue of our standard, towers above its rivals.

The ending of the 1944 baseball season once again brought our team honors. The opposition was tough but Swoyerville crushed all but Hanover. The team which once again held Syoyerville at the top was composed of a group of fine athletes, namely Romanowski, Butsavage, Kolesar, Gowisnock, Savage, Grytcko, Lukas, Ostrosky, Krakosky, Volack and Gostinski, and this year with the addition of Tomshaw, Zanetti, Semko and Cacciatore, Swoyerville hopes to win another pennant.

During the vacation while we were basking in the hot sun, the football team was being whipped into shape. Their intense practice was well rewarded as the closing of the season showed.

An amazing team stepped out onto the gridiron. Just the sight of their brawn gave the opposing team the jitters. All opposition was smeared from the gridiron as if some great unseen hand had smashed them into oblivion. Every game carried spectacular thrills but all good things must come to an end and the season ended with another league title and cup.

We cannot give credit to one alone because without the entire aggregation it would not have been possible. The outstanding participants were Paluck, Butsavage, Zannetti, McBride, Romanowski, Gonglefski and Cacciatore.

With the termination of the football season came a change in uniform. The red, white and blue entered upon its task of also carrying the banner of Swoyerville above its rivals. The team was composed of veterans of the preceding year, namely Gonglefski, Semko, Romanowski, Jugas, June, Skerchak, Ostrosky, Krogulski.

The squad brushed through all their rivals with the ferocity and swiftness of a hurricane on the rampage and the North League title was again clinched as it had been in five preceding years.

The regular season ended with an amazing total of 53.9 points for Swoyerville to the 25.9 points for the opposition.

Swoyerville, the defending Champs of District II, met Plymouth in a game that never will be forgotten by the fans or athletes in Wyoming Valley on March 7, 1945, for Swoyerville was brilliant in defeat as it was brilliant in victory. Before the game was over the score was tied nine times in all. The game then went into an extra period which ended in a tie of 36-36. A "sudden death" period began and ended with Plymouth making one tally thus nosing out Swoyerville.
